

Treasurer-Tax Collector website helps property owners claim tax overpayments

With a simple website search, Riverside County taxpayers can determine whether they are entitled to claim overpaid property taxes that the Treasurer-Tax Collector is trying to return.

Treasurer-Tax Collector, Matthew Jennings has established a website that lists property owners who overpaid their taxes and the amount they are eligible to claim. The website can be found at:

<https://countytreasurer.org/property-tax-unclaimed-refunds>

Under Revenue and Taxation Code 5097 and 5102, property tax refunds that go unclaimed for four years after the payment date or one year after the mailing of the claim form (whichever is later) may be transferred to the County General Fund on order of the Board of Supervisors. Once approved by the Board of Supervisors, a transfer to the general fund occurs if a verified claim is not filed by Thursday, August 1, 2024.
