

NOTICE OF DIVIDED PUBLICATION

Pursuant to Section 3381, Revenue and Taxation Code, the “Notice of Right to Claim Excess Proceeds from the Sale of Tax-Defaulted Property,” in and for Riverside County, State of California, has been divided and distributed to various newspapers of general circulation published in the county. A portion of the list appears in each of such newspapers.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO CLAIM EXCESS PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF TAX-DEFAULTED PROPERTY

(Pursuant to Section 4676, Revenue and Taxation Code)

The parties listed below may be parties of interest as defined by Section 4675, Revenue and Taxation Code, State of California; with rights to claim excess proceeds resulting from the sale of tax-defaulted property held on April 26, 2022.

All claims must be in writing and must contain sufficient information and proof to establish a claimant’s right to all or any part of the excess proceeds. Claims filed with the County more than one year after the recordation of the Treasurer-Tax Collector’s Deeds to the Purchaser on July 7, 2022 cannot be considered.

The County has searched for the parties of interest as required by Section 4676, California Revenue and Taxation Code, and in accordance with such search hereby gives notice of the parties of interest, the assessor’s parcel number and the address of the property.

For your convenience, claim forms and information regarding filing procedures may be obtained at the office of the Treasurer-Tax Collector, County of Riverside, P.O. Box 12005, 4080 Lemon Street, 4th Floor, Riverside, CA 92502-2205 or by calling our office at (951) 955-3900 between 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Matthew Jennings

Treasurer-Tax Collector of Riverside County, CA
